

K2 CHALLENGE

Scale the heights in this exciting new Team Challenge

Your competitive and highly resourceful team must work closely together, and in radio communication with your Base Camp to decipher clues and codes, and complete exercises in the allocated time.

The clock ticks on, and it is imperative that you execute your plan to get as many team mates to the summit as possible... before the rival teams beat you to it!

A hugely popular team-building exercise, showcasing the initiative of all involved.
