Meet The City

Dublin's newest interactive guided walking tour

More Info

Meet the City is Dublin's newest interactive guided walking tour. We have taken traditional walking tours and interwoven GPS based technology to allow groups capture their event in more detail as they are presented with all types of photo and video challenges throughout the event.

Explore, learn, compete – a unique, interactive team building experience which allows you to explore Dublin City.

Event Type	Approach	Duration	Numbers	Location

How it works

The streets are your playground for this team event. The aim of the game is to get out and about to explore, learn and compete against other teams in our unique and interactive programme. Armed with iPads and an experienced tour guide, this team building experience has an interactive twist.

Discover the best of Dublin and enjoy intriguing history, architecture, events and stories of Dublin right back to its Viking & medieval origins. Dublin has so many great places to see, all with their own fascinating stories and history, and during this great two and a half-hour tour we will fit in as many of the city centres most notable and historic highlights as possible.

Points of Interest you see along the way

Oscar Wilde Statue, Leinster House, Natural History Museum, Huguenot Cemetery, Wolfe Tone Statue, The Dawson Lounge (Smallest Pub in Dublin), St. Annes Church

(Oscar Wilde was baptised here, Bram Stoker was married here), Duke Street, Grafton Street, Molly Malone Statue, Front of Trinity College Green, Temple Bar, Wall of Fame, Meeting House Square, Olympia Theatre, Dublin Castle, City Hall, Rates Office, Cork Hill.
